The Upper Noe Neighbors is your community advocacy group. Here's what we do:

- * Promote the collective interests of residents and business owners
- * Inform the public of matters concerning Upper Noe
- * Provide residents with a more forceful, collective voice
- * Promote sociability, friendship and recreation
- * Initiate and supports beneficial neighborhood and civic projects.

Meetings are held bi-monthly on the second Wednesday of the month at the Upper Noe Recreation Center, Day and Sanchez streets, unless noticed otherwise. Meetings and actions taken will comply with current bylaws, and members are entitled to vote on issues that come before the group. Membership runs from March through February and is renewable March of each year. Funds will be used for the purpose of Upper Noe Neighbors administration and communication costs as well as civic projects and other activities approved by the Board of Directors and/or the membership.
