Upper Noe Neighbors is your community advocacy group. Here's what we do:

- * Promote the collective interests of residents and business owners
- * Inform the public of matters concerning Upper Noe Valley
- * Provide residents with a more forceful, collective voice
- * Promote sociability, friendship and recreation
- * Initiate and supports beneficial neighborhood and civic projects.

Meetings are on the third Wednesday of every other month at Upper Noe Recreation Center unless otherwise announced. Meetings and actions will comply with current bylaws. Members are entitled to vote on issues that come before the group. Membership runs for one year and is renewable at any time. Funds are for the purpose of Upper Noe Neighbors administration and communication costs, as well as civic projects and other activities approved by the Board of Directors and/or the membership.
